2022 Baskerville Historics

The 2022 Baskerville Historics will be back bigger and better from the 15th to the 18th September after a scaled down 2021 event due to COVID. There have been nearly 200 entries received and the quality and variety of vehicles that will be racing is set to be one of the best yet.

Entries are open until the 2nd September and can be done online through the Motorsport Australia portal or by contacting Donald Potter on 0447 315 144.

The committees tireless work this year will ensure action packed racing, sprints and regularity with categories such as Group N, Sports, Racing, Sports Sedans, Group A and C and more. There will be a stand alone all Mini Race, in honour of the late Kit Ellis, as well as a Small Ford Race.

There will be a Shannons Show and Glow on Sunday, so if you plan on spectating, bring your pride and joy to put on display. Cost will be $25 per driver and $30 per passenger and include an official program and free entry to the pit area.

Any members interested in helping out on the day as an official can contact officials@motorsportstas.com.au. The best seats are trackside!

Adult spectators will pay $20 on Friday for practice and qualifying and $30 on Saturday and Sunday for full days racing. A weekend pass can be bought for $60. There will be free entry for under 14s.

Event Secretary Donald Potter is excited to welcome 20 Historic Group A and C cars from all over the country, saying “they will put on a great show and shouldn’t be missed, in fact all categories will be well worth seeing, so come along for an action packed weekend”.

Autocraft Baskerville 1000

Another running of the ever popular Baskerville 1000 was held on the 21st August, with 32 entries and 29 finishers. Credit to the teams for building and maintaining such reliable cars. The winners of the event were Team Myrage Racing on a record breaking 1015 points after completing 262 laps. Second place went to Renault Racing on 925 points after 267 laps. Third place went to 13CABS on 895 points after 265 laps. It must be noted that position 3 to 6 were separated by only 20 points and any of those teams could have won the third place trophy up until the last lap. Commiserations go to teams Daetona 500 who only completed 44 laps, SJP Racing Developments who completed only 63 laps and Mozzas Mates who completed only 49 laps. Hopefully these teams can repair their cars and we will see them at the next event to be held on the 6th November at Baskerville.

Time Attack Tasmania

The next running of Time Attack Tasmania will be held at Baskerville on the 4th September. Online entries are open until the 27th of August through the Motorsport Australia portal. Event sponsors Cradle Mountain Wilderness Village are once again giving one lucky competitor or official the chance to win 2 nights accomodation in a Premium Luxury Spa Chalet for two. Get your entries in ASAP for the chance to win, or for officials, please register your interest to help out by emailing officials@motorsportstas.com.au.
